I read the email you forwarded to me.
Very interesting. He had a meeting this afternoon with several staff members and I heard he was not happy to find out things weren't really fixed. The overpayment needs to be resolved and I have a small part in that. Internal processes need to be improved. If not, we will have the same audit finding. But no one at the district will know how to fix if they don't come ask me.
Because I reviewed the 2012-2013 invoices, I know what the problems are.
I've looked at the contract from different perspectives. purchasing, wellness, and business services.

You worked with Terri Cicero on this initially, correct? Before she left wellness???

9/25/2015, 9:41p

I did but when she left nothing else really happened. Today I met with Terri, Heather Albritton (Crowley), and others. We went over some things today and Heather realized that things hadn't really been fixed. Heather took over for Terri. When Terri was over it, she was pulled for so many other priorities. I don't think she had the time or staff to do what she needed to do to fix it.

And Heather didn't have a clue

What else is bubbling up??????? Title I, IDEA ????

Right, Heather didn't really know.
Bubbling up is the upcoming staff cuts because of enrollment shortages. At

Bubbling up is the upcoming staff cuts
because of enrollment shortages. At today's principals meeting, they were told that decisions would be made this weekend. I think they may try to blame the board for the cuts. But you all told him you would rather add staff in the fall than to prematurely add and then cut. He wouldn't ever build the budget the way you all asked - without the state increase, worst case scenario, etc.

I vote, fire him now !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

9/25/2015, 9:58p

Ha ha I also heard he interviewed for the Broad Academy. I looked online. It's a 2 year commitment that's very time consuming. How will he have time to do that? Unless she does it for him.

Absolutely. There are 5 6-day sessions that he has to attend. Tuesday through Sunday.

9/25/2015, 10:10p

Wow, and he thinks he can do that?
Special Ed in action.

9/25/2015, 10:11p

I guess he does. In the meantime, everything in the district comes to a halt because no one is allowed to make a decision or do their job independently. I bet some of the dates are the same as a regular board meeting or workshop.
