A. Introduction

At times material hereto:

THE DEFENDANT

1. REGINALD FULLWOOD (FULLWOOD) was a resident of Jacksonville, Florida. FULLWOOD maintained a business bank account at Atlantic Coast Bank, in Jacksonville, Florida, under the organizational name "Reggie Fullwood Campaign," in which to deposit and maintain campaign funds from campaign contributors. This campaign account was opened in October 2009, connection with FULLWOOD's run for election to the Florida House of Representatives and FULLWOOD was the sole authorized signatory on the campaign account.

4. FULLWOOD was the owner of an entity named Rhino Harbor, LLC (Rhino Harbor) registered with the State of Florida Division of Corporations.

ELECTION LAWS OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

8. In the State of Florida, a candidate or the spouse of a candidate may not use funds on deposit in a campaign account of such candidate to defray normal living expenses for the candidate or the candidate's family, other than expenses actually incurred for transportation, meals, and lodging by the candidate or a family member during travel in the course of the campaign.

9. In the State of Florida, campaign treasurers designated by a candidate are required to file regular reports with the State of all contributions received, and all expenditures made, by or on behalf of the candidate.

obtaining money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises.

C. Manner and Means

5. It was further part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that FULLWOOD would submit or cause to be submitted false and fraudulent campaign expenditure reports to the State of Florida which included inflated and/or non-existent campaign expenses in order to hide and conceal the fact that FULLWOOD had fraudulently and unlawfully embezzled funds from the Reggie Fullwood Campaign Account with Atlantic Coast Bank, in violation of campaign laws of the State of Florida.
