About the CRC Foundation:

The Charles Richard Campbell (CRC) Foundation was created by NFL Pro Defensive End Calais Campbell and his family: mother Nateal, sisters Kemba and Keyonne, and brothers Jamar, Raj, Ciarre, Calais, Severin and Jared. Together, they keep alive the legacy of their late father, a man who instilled character and discipline into every young person he knew. Like a tree, he stood strong in this commitment.

Scholarship for College-Bound High School Seniors:

The scholarship for college-bound high school honors the legacy of Charles R. Campbell and is a testament to his dedication – to helping young people fulfill their potential. To date $50,000 in college scholarships have been awarded to deserving students. The CRC Foundation takes pride in providing young people with the encouragement, care and guidance they need to succeed on the collegiate level.

Calais Campbell and his seven siblings understand the joys and challenges of growing up in a large family. Their parents weathered a variety of storms to persevere in providing a loving upbringing to their children. Today, the Campbell's are each successful in their own right, attributing much of their success to the power of education.
