I may not have said it much and if I did I probably was just talking, but I love you, and I never did realize that you loved me too, you where hard so very hard, but it made me mentally strong and physicly strong, and you did it B/c you cared,

I have some things to tell my friends as well

[REDACTED] Stay who you are, B/c your good
Just the way you are

[REDACTED] Pain is temporary my friend
