

State of Florida
Department of Children and Families

Ron DeSantis
Governor

Chad Poppell
Secretary

October 9, 2019

Honorable James H. Daniel
76347 Veterans Way
Yulee, FL 32097
jprather@nassauclerk.com

RE: Kimberly Kessler aka Jennifer Sybert
Case No: 2018-CF-0815; 2018-CF-0373

Dear Judge Daniel:

Enclosed is the current competency evaluation on the above referenced individual.

As indicated, the treatment staff are of the opinion that this resident is competent to proceed and no longer meets criteria for continued involuntary commitment. Pursuant to Section 916.13(2)(b), Florida Statutes, a competency hearing shall be held within 30 days after the court receives this notification and the defendant must be transported to attend the hearing.

Should you have any clinical questions in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact the Recovery Team through the Psychology Department at (850) 663-7706. Please provide a copy of all orders by mail to the address on this letterhead or by electronic mail to fsh.court.services@myflfamilies.com.

Sincerely,

Waylon S. Lewis
Institutional Counsel

WSL/rak
Enclosures

cc: Office of the State Attorney; Office of the Public Defender, Counsel for Defendant; DCF
Regional Counsel, Circuit 4; Clinical Care Support Specialist

Confidential & Privileged Information

Florida State Hospital
100 North Main Street/P.O. Box 1000 • Chattahoochee, Florida 32324-1000

Mission: Work in Partnership with Local Communities to Protect the Vulnerable, Promote Strong and Economically Self-Sufficient Families, and Advance Personal and Family Recovery and Resiliency

If you require Americans with Disabilities Act accommodations to participate in an event at Florida State Hospital, please notify Human Resources at (850) 663-7585 at least seven (7) days prior to the event. Deaf or hard of hearing individuals may call 1-800-955-8771.

Electronically Filed Nassau Case # 18CF000815AXYX 10/09/2019 04:00:16 PM

2018 CARF ACCREDITED

GOVERNOR'S STERLING AWARD RECIPIENT